Race 5 - 4:15PM IRRESISTIBLE POOLS AND SPAS SUPER 3YO MAIDEN HANDICAP (1100 METRES)

For a $60,000 Maiden at Hawkesbury, this is a very strong race. There are three debutants engaged who could all win maidens on debut and they've lobbed in the same race. Amazing to think with so many races, and a couple of these scratched a few times prior have ended up in a $60,000 Maiden at Hawkesbury on a Tuesday. It is a shame as only one of them can win this and we would be following them and backing them in weaker contests.

#12 SILVER CLIFF is a nice filly who has been impressive at the trials. She has been scratched prior to this race and now ends up in a strong race, over three weeks since her Randwick trial. She clearly has ability and we loved her trial win. Berry sticks which is a good sign and she draws to get a nice run.

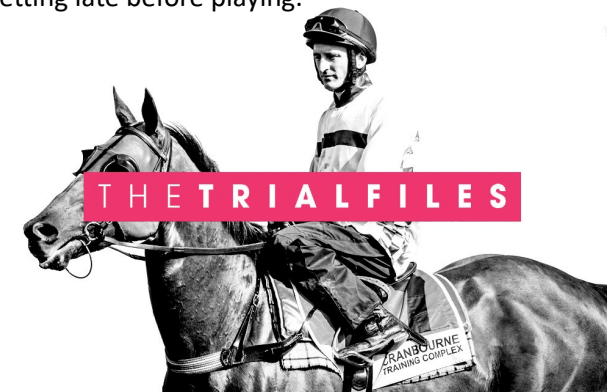

#11 ROSE CODE is another debutant who trialed well leading in. Her latest trial was here at Hawkesbury where she finished her heat off well. She looks a nice moving filly and she too maps well.

Then we have #10 OCEANS QUIET, a speedy daughter of Lonhro for Yulong. She won her Rosehill trial impressively, by close to 3 lengths. She will be handy from barrier 2 and is another key chance.

To the raced brigade... #5 BONITA QUEEN started $4 in a $250,000 race when last seen. She failed there but willing to forgive that run on the Gold Coast. Freshen up since and a speedy mid prep Warwick Farm Trial suggests she can bounce back in a big way. #1 SUSPECT has been gelded and looks to be in good order for the new stable. Mitch Beer will be looking to get this ex Waller galloper running well on stable debut.

SELECTION:

Hard race to bet into with confidence but tipping there'll be money to be made following this race as a form reference. Tipping #12 SILVER CLIFF from #10 OCEANS QUIET, #5 BONITA QUEEN and #11 ROSE CODE. No huge market edge but monitoring parade and the betting late before playing.
