

THE TRIAL FILES

08/11/2023 PORT LINCOLN

Race 5 - 5:20PM Leader Distributors Benchmark 78 Handicap (1000 METRES)

I have really liked what I have seen from the jump outs this time around from LUNAR HERO. He was transferred to the Peter Hardacre camp towards the end of his last preparation and put in two subpar performances before a spell. His jump outs leading in to his first full preparation for the new stable have been very pleasing, particularly his effort at Murray Bridge on 23/11. He moved very well there and that piece of work suggests to me that he is going very well.

He draws 1 here and is a fast horse which is generally a good recipe at this track. Callan Murray rides and he has been riding well of late which is a plus.

SELECTION:
