Race 1 – 11:05AM PETALUMA 2YO HCP (1100 METRES)

Heavy 9 for today's meeting with the rail out 3m. The scratching of I FOUND YOU has made this race a lot more interesting with some nice horses set to debut.

We have been keen to see #6 MAYFAIR get to the races following some nice work at the trials. He was a good winner of his first hit out this time in over the 742m at Randwick on 31/5 and followed that up with another impressive performance over 1050m at the same track on 14/6. He looks a big, strong colt and in typical Waterhouse/Clark fashion he should press forward to try and lead this from barrier 3. We love the way he moves, and he goes on top on debut.

#3 BRAVE ONE is another debutante who look to have his share of ability. He led his most recent trial at Rosehill on 21/6 and when pressured at the 100, found an extra gear under no riding to win in quite stylish fashion. He draws 2 inside MAYFAIR and will likely press forward with him and at the current quote of $7.50, we don't want to be losing on him.

#4 CARNEGIE HILL is another debutante that certainly has ability. He led his most recent trial and kicked to win strongly, but barrier 7 in this event looks a little sticky given the top picks have drawn softly. #1 WINNING PROPOSAL opened short and has drifted today which is no surprise given she looked massively under the odds. Draws 1 for Nash and has the race fitness following 2 Heavy track starts this preparation but we think the debutantes look a bit smarter than her. Happy to lay her.

SELECTION:

Love the trials of #6 MAYFAIR and #3 BRAVE ONE. Main win bet #6 MAYFAIR, save #3 BRAVE ONE.

Laying #1 WINNING PROPOSAL

Stay tuned to twitter for any late mounting yard mail.

THE TRIAL FILES

06/07/2024 FLEMINGTON

Race 1 - 11:55AM Next Generations Sprinters Series Final (1200 METRES)

First meeting back in the True position since Anzac Day as we've gone 4, 8, 11m in the three since. Been a while and the inside lanes could be okay today.

Field of 8 2YO's to kick things off. Speed from EARTH GOD who looks the leader from ROYAL HILL.

As our followers would know, we have a huge opinion of #3 I FOUND YOU and she didn't let us down on debut, winning in dominant fashion. Interesting to see what the market does with her here as this is a very different set up, off the heavy track, down the straight, travelling and McDonald off. The form from that debut run hasn't exactly set the world alight either with a couple of runners putting in plain runs since. Think we will get better than the $1.60 given the little queries, but despite these little question marks, tipping she will be winning this. Her trials were superb and that debut win was that of a very smart horse.

#2 EARTH GOD led at Geelong last start and won in dominant fashion, putting over three lengths on his rivals. He had his chance there on a moderate tempo but he ran very fast late sectionals after leading which is an impressive thing to do. The Written Tycoon Colt ran 23.00 flat for the final 400m and 11.76 for the final 200m which were the fastest of the entire meeting. He is an impressive colt that looks a major player.

The sole debutant #4 ALDOLFITO trialed up impressively on his home track at Pakenham leading in. He was beaten by 2 lengths in that heat but was held up after settling back in the field before getting into the clear late and finishing off impressively. He has a turn of foot which is important in these straight races and a forward showing wouldn't surprise. Interesting market watch.

#1 GOLDEN WARRIOR has won two on end. Interestingly, his last couple of wins have come off slow tempos which he might not get today. He had every possible chance last start, leading at an incredibly slow tempo at 1400m, running 13.1 lengths slower than class benchmark to the 600m before sprinting well. Back to 1200m now looks a new challenge and happy to think he's the weak link in the market.

Selection:
