10/07/23 WYONG

Trial 11 – 845m (50.53)

DREAMDEEL – 4YO Gelding who is coming off a nice campaign when getting up to a more suitable trip. Surprised they have taken so long to get this horse over 1600m+ and hopefully they have learned from the last campaign. He's by Dundeel which isn't a surprise given the name and he handles all conditions. Better yet, he has tactical speed. He put himself into this trial and led throughout to win this well. Nice piece of work and can continue his good recent form this campaign.

THE TRIAL FILES

10/07/23 WERRIBEE JUMPOUTS

Heat 2 – 800m (52.08)

RANTING – Interesting runner switching to the Nick Ryan stable from Team Corstens. A horse who has always shown ability at the trials and not always capitalised on race-day. The new camp look to have him humming judging by this effort settling off the speed he ripped home to finish second from the back and he goes around at Flemington on Saturday just may put it all together.

Heat 3 – 800m (52.91)

WOLFY – Another from the Nick Ryan stable so impressive the way this unraced 2YO let down from the back and despite the slow overall time recorded, he finished off in good closing splits and showed a lot more than he did his first jumpout, wherever he's going I want to be with him.

Heat 4 – 800m (51.81)

GENERAL KNOWLEDGE – Matt Ellerton-trained 2YO was a really professional 2YO winner at Werribee recently and returned here for a jumpout and controlled the speed and quickened up from the turn to win with his ears up, query around the strength of the opposition but he looks to have come on again and is one to follow towards his next run.

Heat 5 – 800m (51.92)

SHEVA – 2YO filly by Written Tycoon for Team Hayes. One of the better trial performers at the Cranbourne official Trials back in February and couldn't have been more impressive on return as the filly travelled up under a monkey grip in the straight as the horse wanted to go quicker. She's in the right stable to be wining first-up and would be hard to beat over the short course.
