Race 2 - 2:20PM I AM INVINCIBLE EASTER YEARLINGS MIDWAY 2YO MAIDEN HANDICAP (900 METRES)

All eyes on #7 RANTAN on debut today. This filly won a trial on March 22 in style and looks a talented daughter of I Am Invincible. Her time was comparable to others engaged here but it was the way she did it in her work which was the most impressive aspect. She made fantastic ground in the straight there, picking up her rivals under minimal pressure. This backed up a nice trial on March 7 where she showed speed and was still strong late. The filly looks versatile and she draws to get favours from barrier 6. It is hard to take even money about a debutant over 900m but this filly does look more talented than her rivals and looks hard to beat.

#5 BLUE MOVES has only had the one public trial, winning her heat at Randwick impressively. She showed speed there and looked professional under minimal pressure to take out that piece in good fashion. The time was okay considering the pressure but the query will be whether she'll need this run, with only the 740m trial under her belt. #6 FLYING EMBERS competed in that same trial, running into second. She was under more pressure there and may not have the upside with that being her second trial this campaign.

Liked the trial win by #3 SHALL BE who looks a nice moving son of Shalaa. He won this trial impressively, covering ground at Gosford and proving too strong. #1 BOOMTOWN CHAT did the chasing and made ground in a Randwick trial, moving nicely enough.

SELECTION:

#7 RANTAN clearly the horse to beat and she looks very talented. Hard to recommend a bet at even money for a debutant over 900m however.
