

THE TRIAL FILES

05/04/2024 CRANBOURNE

Race 4 - 6:45PM Core Protective Group Maiden Plate (1000 METRES)

1000m race and speed looks good. Expecting above average tempo for this class. KAMCHATKA has led his last three over 1000m, BENCREATO similar, ROOM FOR BINGO has speed and LA FILLE ROUGE comes off a 955m race and led a jump out leading in. With the blinkers on for the first time, LA FILLE ROUGE will be sharp enough but no surprise to see her settle behind the leaders.

The horse to beat looks to be #5 HARRY GOT STYLES who comes into this on the back of a fantastic Mornington jump-out on March 27. He beat a race fit LA FILLE ROUGE in that jump-out and he looked impressive, showing a turn of foot and doing it comfortably on the line. He comes into this with a number of jump-outs under his belt throughout his career but he has won his last three including one in November. He travelled away from his home track to have a jump-out, showing speed at Sandown to win before that home track jump-out victory.

#10 LOVE SO SWEET has the run under her belt. She wasn't beaten far at this track and trip last time and can improve off that performance. Blinkers stay on #9 LA FILLE ROUGE and tongue tie goes on for race-day. This filly was well beaten first-up but was in stronger grade there. She was outsprinted there and was solid enough in the run home. She will find this easier and with the gear changes she can improve today.

SELECTION:

#5 HARRY GOT STYLES looks talented and the deserved favourite. Tipping he'll be very hard to beat here on debut but he's another that the market hasn't missed.

Web: www.thetrialfiles.com.au

@the_trialfiles

@thetrialfiles

Disclaimer: The Trial Files is published for information purposes only. All care is taken in compiling information, however The Trial Files is not liable for errors.
Gamble Responsibly: 1800 858 858

