Race 4 - 3:50PM KIA ORA PRAGUE HANDICAP (1200 METRES)

POWER OF THE BRAVE should try and lead from barrier 4 with KANDINSKY ABSTRACT and UNTIL VALHALLA likely to press on from 2 & 4. FLYING DESTINY and RHYTHMIC PULSE likely to look for the front drawn out wide. Speed looks good.

We have liked the way KANDINSKY ABSTRACT has returned. He had a quiet first trial but was strong through the line and followed that up with an impressive piece of work at Rosehill on 18/3. He settled just behind the leaders there and was presented upon straightening and asked to quicken and we liked the way he responded and attacked the line. Drawn 2 here with J Mac to ride he should be positive and tag the speed and have his chance to win. Talented horse who has competed well in strong 3yo races and he looks to have come on in his break.

The main danger looks to be FLYING DESTINY. He has trialed very well leading in to this and did perform well in similar grade last prep. If he can find the front without doing too much work he is going to be hard to run down.

POWER OF THE BRAVE, SETTEVELI and UNTIL VALHALLA are all lightly raced horses with upside and all have trialed well enough leading in to this. Would lean to Until Valhalla as the biggest danger from this group from the soft draw.

SELECTION:

Competitive race and may be a good form race moving forward, but we are with #10 KANDINSKY ABSTRACT (win) here on the back of two impressive trials.
