

THE TRIAL FILES

23/5/2024 PAKENHAM

Race 1 – 5:15PM FALCONE AND ADAMS 2YO MAIDEN (1200 METRES)

Rail out 6m on a Soft 6. JUST FOR SHOW should try and cross from out wide with ALMIGHTY JAB prominent from the lo draw. INDEFINITE should settle closer than it did on debut from 3 with STAY HUMBLE handy from the inside draw. Speed looks genuine enough.

We were taken by the most recent jump out of #7 ON THE MOVE. He had a quiet jump out leading prior where he moved stylishly and followed it with a very impressive win over 800m at Flemington on 10/5. As they straightened up, the rider gave him a hit with the whip and he responded instantly, which we love to see. He was very strong through the line, and he looks a nice type of horse and moves particularly well. Keen to be with him here.

Main danger looks to be #4 INDEFINITE. Trialled well alongside Stanley Express prior to a good 6th in the VOBIS Showdown at Caulfield on debut. He settled towards the rear of the field and didn't have the clearest passage early in the straight, but once he got clear air he ran on soundly enough. Drawn 3 he should settle handy and with the race experience he should improve 2nd time out.

#5 JUST FOR SHOW has run well twice without winning so far in its career. The form around Perspiration/Tropicus is good for this but he has had every chance to win on both occasions and has been a little plain late. Happy to work around him.

#9 STAY HUMBLE and #10 SUPERNIMA have both trialled up well enough but prefer to watch them here. Would be worth keeping an eye on #11 DOLLAR SHOT at a big price. Her trial two back was quite good, and she may be worth following for something further/easier as this prep goes on.

SELECTION:

Loved the jump out of #7 ON THE MOVE and we are with him on debut (win).
